Greater Greensboro AGO New Season's Programs

This season your local chapter is offering an array of interesting programs in a variety of locations across our region. We hope that at least one will be of interest and convenient to you.

The season begins in September with a potluck social. We will install our new slate of officers, share more information about this year's programs, and we invite you to share a favorite funny wedding-funeral story...we know you've got 'em. So bring a friend, a great dish, and a funny story to share.

In October, Wayne Leupold and Eleanor McCrickard will talk about the new Leupold Bach editions. Wayne will explain the impetus for creating the new editions and Eleanor will speak about her process as editor for some of the volumes. The interesting and informative session is co-sponsored by the Greater Greensboro and Winston Salem Chapters and will be held at Kernersville Moravian.

November brings a Hymn Festival and Improvisation Master Class with Rob Ridgell, former Music Director-Organist at Trinity Wall Street. Rob now serves Christ Episcopal in Charlotte and is an amazing talent. You may have seen some of his music on youtube.com. Search "Trinity and Michael Jackson" and "Trinity and James Brown, Gerald Ford."

Look to our website for more information about these and other programs as each approaches. www.ggago.org

A Thanks and a Plea

The Executive Board thanks Michael Dougherty for his years of service to the GGAGO Chapter. Michael served as Secretary for two years and when asked, stepped into the Sub-Dean position when that individual moved from our Chapter. He then served two years as Dean. During his tenure, Michael worked to strengthen the structure of the Board and its activities, overseeing the creation and implementation of up-dated by laws and operating procedures. We say a fond farewell to Michael as he leaves the Board and his job at Wesley Memorial UMC to accept a position in Tampa, Florida.

Thanks to Michael for his years on the Board and good luck in Tampa!

the Plea

The new Board and Chapter structure encourages greater membership involvement. Each Executive Board member oversees an aspect of our structure. The jobs in the various areas may be big or small, long- or short-term and are implemented by our members.

When a Board Member calls, we hope you will answer and get involved.
